We are very excited by your interest in becoming a volunteer translator at The Progeria Research Foundation (PRF). We look forward to having you become part of the PRF Team. Please help us learn more about you and your volunteer interests. Your answers to the following questions will help us determine how your skills, interests, and availability match our translation needs. Thank you for your time.

As a PRF volunteer translator, you may be exposed to or become aware of information that is confidential; that is, information that should not be shared or discussed with anyone other than those working with or assisting you with your translations for PRF.

Examples of confidential information include any and all information about the children and families participating in various PRF programs or clinical trials, including and not limited to names, addresses, diagnoses, treatment, personal life and status with PRF.

Certain information about the business practices of PRF is also confidential. This includes information about our donors, volunteers, and grant recipients, and information related to research or clinical trials conducted by those affiliated with or funded by PRF.

Should you have a question as to whether certain information is confidential, please consult with Gina Incrovato, Director of Operations, who will provide you with the necessary guidance.

By returning this application you acknowledge your understanding and agreement to maintain the information described in a confidential manner.
