

PRF 2020 Annual Report

INCOME ANALYSIS - 2020

TOTAL REVENUE
$2,227,158

TOTAL EXPENSES
$2,591,622

PROGRAM RATIO

EXPENSE ANALYSIS - 2020

Net Assets: $6,532,044 - much of these funds are designated for future clinical trial and drug development costs.

Core PRF Activities That Support Our Mission

2020 ACTIVITY	PRF PROGRAM	CUMULATIVE ACTIVITY (1999 - 2020)
28 children from 15 countries - a record high!	International Patient Registry (includes unconfirmed cases)	319 children with Progeria from 65 countries and all continents have registered with PRF
86 cell lines sent to 20 labs in 8 countries; 4 children were tested	Cell & Tissue Bank Diagnostic Testing Program	1,264 cell lines sent to 197 teams in 25 countries; 152 children tested through PRF
4 children enrolled from 4 countries	Medical & Research Database	187 enrolled from 51 countries and 1 US territory
Translation of Progeria handbook in Chinese began	Progeria Treatment Guidelines Handbook	Available in four languages - English, Spanish, Portuguese, Japanese; sent to families and their doctors in 65 countries and 1 U.S. territory
Everolimus + lonafarnib Trial, final visits continue; Trials led to FDA approval for lonafarnib!	Clinical Trial Funding & Co-coordination	98 children from 38 countries have participated in PRF clinical trials, initiated in 2007
7 research grants awarded	Research Grant Funding	80 grants to 54 labs in 15 countries; funding total: $8.7 million
373 registrants from 30 countries attended virtually	International Scientific Meetings	13 meetings: 10 general workshops and 3 subspecialties
11 events, 80 new volunteers	Volunteer Program	Nearly 5,000 volunteers worldwide have helped raise awareness and funds
9 families requiring an interpreter traveled to the U.S.; one more language added to program material translations (Persian/Farsi)	Translations Program	PRF's program and medical care materials are translated into 39 languages
1,310 media mentions (online publications)	Public Awareness	8,500 media mentions (online publications) - resulting in millions reached worldwide